Dear Ralph,

Your Olson's Reading is just stunning.

I read straight through it, then the notes straight through, and could do it again happily six or eight times at least. I'm sending reviews places.

May I also say how impressive you are this issue of the Newsletter, attacking that hard thing and winning it, persuading me absolutely that what Olson's doing is remaking himself in public, on that platform. You do things for writers that they cannot deserve, in the sense of couldn't in conscience ask for, or hope for.

You've... as I said, only look to make me feel I was inside Olson's mind. Astonishing.

Ernie
